PRIVACY & POLICY

Techcraft Web Solutions has created the privacy statement to show commitment towards the privacy of our visitors. Their privacy is extremely important for us. The page is describing the types of personal information is gathered and recorded and how we use it.

LOG FILES

Like many other sites, we use log files. These files are used to log visitors to the site. These log files contain internet protocol (IP) address, Internet Service Provider (ISP), browser type, referring/existing pages, date/time stamp and the record of number of clicks.

PURPOSES OF DATA GATHERING

Techcraft Web Solutions uses your IP address to diagnose problems with our server and to administer our site. It is used to collect broad demographic information.

Next Screen site's registration form needs contact information of users (like name and email ID) and the demographic info (like Zip code). The shared information is used to establish contact with the visitors if necessary. Email address they have shared with us is used to send mail alerts related to our offers and services. The profile data and demographic are used to tailor the visitor's experience at our site, displaying the content they might be interested.

A QUICK GLANCE:

- We may use your personal data to improve our services
- We may send promotional emails about new services, special offers to user's registered email Id
- We may contact you through mailing or phone.
- We may use the information to customize the site according to your interests

Note: Each mail you receive from us holds an unsubscribe buttons that you can click to not to receive mails from us in future.

We conduct online surveys asking visitors for contact information and demographic information. The contact info is used for our contests to send users information about our company.

SECURITY

Techcraft Web Solutions ensures that the information you share with us is safe. We don't share to any third party in any circumstance. To prevent unauthorised access we have put in place highly advance software.

We will not sell, lease or distribute your personal data to third parties unless your permission or the law gives us to do so.

COOKIES

We use cookies. A cookie is a small file which needs your permission to be placed on your PC's hard drive. As you agree, the cookie helps analyse web traffic and let you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies help you tailor web applications' operation as per your needs by collecting and remembering information about your preferences.

Cookies help us to offer you the best insight of the site by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful. A cookie doesn't give access to your computer data.

You can either decline or accept cookies. In case, you feel any information we are sharing is incorrect or incomplete, feel free to mail us. If you have any doubt related to our privacy policy, mail us.
